

Twinning is...

- ◆ Linking two similar communities in different countries with the aim of developing various activities and encouraging greater understanding in each others lives and interests
- ◆ Promoting cultural, commercial, educational, sport and other activities and events of interest to individuals of all ages, families, groups and/or the community as a whole

A Bugle & Cysoing...

- ◆ Silver bugles were buried near Cysoing by the King's Shropshire Light Infantry (KSLI) during their retreat to Dunkirk
- ◆ Searches by the KSLI for the bugles developed contacts with Cysoing and led to an interest in twinning with a similar town in Shropshire
- ◆ Apart from its population, Cysoing's overall situation is very close to Much Wenlock's, while the enthusiasm amongst its residents for twinning is overwhelming

Members benefits...

- ◆ Meet other Francophiles to enjoy common interests in France, its history, customs and people
- ◆ Make new friendships, both in Much Wenlock and Cysoing
- ◆ Participate in a range of social and fund-raising events
- ◆ Improve your conversational French
- ◆ Participate in exchanges and visits between the twin towns
- ◆ Join the Much Wenlock Twinning Bowling Team
- ◆ Receive regular newsletters – The Bugle – to keep you up to date

MWTG is...

- ◆ A voluntary, non-profit group, supported by the community of Much Wenlock, and part of national and European organisations.
- ◆ Based on its overall membership drawn from people of all ages from Much Wenlock and the surrounding area
- ◆ Administered by an elected Executive Committee of volunteers
